CONSENT AGREEMENT

This Consent Agreement, dated this ^{OUR 22nd} ~~13th~~ day of September, 2006, is between the State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners ("Board") and Alvina Cook, D.V.M. ("Dr. Cook"), License No. 1434, the owner of Accokeek Animal Hospital, Hospital License No. 16-053. The Agreement concerns the charges that the Board filed against Dr. Cook alleging that her hospital failed to comply with certain sanitation requirements for veterinary hospital facilities.

Under State law, the Board is the licensing authority responsible for regulating the practice of veterinary medicine in this State, which includes taking disciplinary actions against owners of veterinary hospitals for violating the sanitation requirements that the Board has established for such facilities. The Board "may suspend or revoke a license for failure to maintain the facility properly." Md. Code Ann., Agric. Art., §2-304.1(c); and in lieu of, or in addition to, suspending a license, the Board may impose a civil penalty of not more than $5,000 (Md. Code Ann., Agric. Art., §2-310.1).

FINDINGS OF FACTS

Dr. Cook, by entering into and signing this document, acknowledges that the Board could produce evidence establishing the following Findings of Fact:

- 1.) At all times relevant to the charges, Dr. Cook was, and is, a veterinarian licensed to practice veterinary medicine in the State of Maryland; and was the owner of the Accokeek Animal Hospital located at 14803 Indian Head Highway, Accokeek, Maryland 20607.

2.) On or about July 27, 2005, Robin Roscher, a Board inspector, inspected the veterinary facility and noted that the lab/pharmacy area was cluttered. Ms. Roscher also inspected the kennel area and observed that it was unsanitary. Ms. Roscher informed Dr. Cook about the concerns she had regarding the hospital's sanitary condition, and told Dr. Cook that she would return in 30 days to reinspect the facility.

3.) On or about September 20, 2005, Ms. Roscher returned to the hospital facility, but could not reinspect it because the facility was closed.

4.) On or about October 26, 2005, Ms. Roscher once more returned to the hospital facility to reinspect it. At this time, she again found that the lab/pharmacy area was cluttered and unorganized. Specifically, Ms. Roscher observed various items piled on the counters, preventing the counters from being cleaned and sanitized.

5.) During this inspection, Ms. Roscher also observed that the kennel area was dirty. Specifically, she observed large accumulations of hair around the animal cages and in the corners of the room. In addition, Ms. Roscher noted that the kennel area was unorganized and cluttered. Specifically, she observed food, bedding, and other miscellaneous items being stored in the kennel - some of which were directly on the floor.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Based upon these Findings of Fact, the Board makes the following Conclusions of Law:

1.) On or about October 26, 2005, Dr. Cook, the owner of the Accokeek Animal Hospital, failed to keep areas of her hospital neat and clean (to wit: the kennel area and the lab/pharmacy area), a violation of COMAR 15.14.03.02B.

2.) On or about October 26, 2005, Dr. Cook kept food and bedding in an animal room

(to wit: the kennel area), rather than kept in a separate room stored off the floor (e.g. on pallets, racks, or carts), as required under COMAR 15.14.03.06.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, finding that Dr. Cook violated the Veterinary Practice Act, it is this 22nd day of September, 2006, by the State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners, ORDERED:

That Dr. Cook is assessed a Civil Penalty in the amount of Five Hundred Dollars (2 charges x $250.00), and that she pay this penalty to the Board within thirty (30) days from the date of this Consent Agreement.
